Gift Ideas from North Devon Theatres

Theatre Tickets

An outing to the theatre is always a happy and memorable treat. Buying an experience as a gift is a wonderful way to spoil loved ones and make your own happy and lasting memories. Here at North Devon Theatres we pride ourselves on the variety of shows we can offer all year round.

Group Bookings

Many of our shows offer a group booking rate. Look for the G on each show entry.

Try something different to celebrate Christmas this year. A group outing to the pantomime is the perfect choice to celebrate Christmas. Pantomime is an institutional tradition; it's not only great festive fun it's the one time you can get involved by booing and hissing at the villain; it's a theatre experience children never forget.

Membership as a Gift

If you're ever struggling with ideas for presents then we have the perfect solution. Forget buying socks or talc, a yearly Membership at North Devon Theatres offers you all kinds of great benefits and provides huge savings throughout each season. See p40 for further information.

Gift Vouchers

North Devon Theatres' Gift Tokens make a brilliant gift for Christmas or birthdays and can be purchased in any denomination. They can be redeemed as payment for tickets for any show at either the Landmark or the Queen's. Contact the Box Office on 01271 32 42 42 or visit our website for further details.

Avenue Q

The Hilarious Musical With Puppet Nudity

When: Thurs 22 to Sat 24 Jan, 7.30pm | Genre: musical

Venue: Queen's Theatre | Tickets: £14.50 G 16

Includes £1.50 Love Arts contribution. A £1 booking fee will be added per transaction

North Devon's Atlantic Coast Theatre (ACT) present this hilarious musical that tells the story of a college graduate, Princeton, who moves into a shabby New York apartment all the way out on Avenue Q. There, he meets Kate Monster (the girl next door), Rod (the Republican), Trekkie Monster (the internet sexpert), Lucy the Slut and other colourful types who help Princeton finally discover his true purpose in life.

Avenue Q is great for older teenagers because it's about real life. It may not be appropriate for young children because Avenue Q addresses issues like sex, drinking, and surfing the web for porn.

The Me Show

Performed by multi story theatre company

When: Thurs 29 Jan, 8pm | Genre: drama | Venue: studio@QT

Tickets: £11 (£9), m £8.50, u25s £5 🕒 1hr 15mins G 14

Includes £1.50 Love Arts contribution. A £1 booking fee will be added per transaction

The Me Show gives voice to many "me's". All more or less at the centre of their own "me" universe and all clamouring to be heard. Each of us has a story to tell and there are many of us unburdening ourselves in all sorts of different ways, be it on stage, on the page, film, canvas or through social media. But do our stories just lock us further and further inside our own worlds or are we part of a bigger story that knits us together?

North Devon's touring theatre company premiere their latest production with us before flying the flag for North Devon in venues and festivals around the UK.

Miracle Theatre deftly combines its own inimitable style with the wonder of Victorian Music Hall to tell the story of one man's obsession to discover the heart of Africa and transform an entire continent single-handed...

Both a hurrah to courage and endurance and a swipe at the 19th Century ideals of imperialism, chauvinism and hypocrisy, this curious slice of history is served up as a magnificent melange of musicality and melodrama.

This entertaining expedition into unknown territories of comedy, excitement and musical gaiety will enthral audiences of all generations.

FAUST

Swansea City Opera Performs Gounod's Finest Opera

When: Sat 28 Feb, 7.30pm | Genre: opera | Venue: Queen's Theatre
Tickets: stalls/dress circle £23.40 (£21.40), m £20.80, upper circle £20.80 (£18.80) m £16.80, u25s £11

Includes £1.50 Love Arts contribution. A £1 booking fee will be added per transaction.

We are delighted to welcome back the critically acclaimed Swansea City Opera with their tour of Faust.

Sung in English, this dark Gothic tale follows the fortunes of Faust, who weary of life, is contemplating suicide when he encounters Méphistophélès (the Devil). Faust agrees to exchange his soul for eternal youth and the fulfilment of his hedonistic wishes. The resulting journey balances romance and temptation; and is widely regarded as a magical and tuneful masterpiece.

This production is set in the Victorian Gothic era and accompanied by chamber orchestra.

We have landed ourselves quite a catch. Port Isaac's very own Fisherman's Friends are back on North Devon shores to entertain us with an incredibly rousing and joyful set of shanties and Cornish folk songs.

There's no gang leader, no choirmaster and no holds barred in the singing of The Fisherman's Friends. And fisherman's friends they truly are, each and every member of this unique group are or have been fishermen, lifeboatmen and coastguards (as well as builders, artisans, hoteliers, and shop keepers) in Port Isaac.

Blackeyed Theatre revives its highly-acclaimed production of John Godber's classic comedy about life at a modern comprehensive for Mr Nixon, an unsuspecting new drama teacher. Fast-moving, inventive and highly entertaining, Teachers brings to life an array of terrifying teachers and hopeless pupils through the unique eyes of Salty, Gail and Hobby; three Year 11 students about to leave school for good.

Brought back to the stage by highly acclaimed Blackeyed Theatre, with high energy, break-neck comedy and breathtaking ensemble performances, Teachers is a modern classic with something vital to say about education for the 'haves' and 'have nots'.

'Performance meets the Wicker Man with a touch of Entertaining Mr. Sloane'

On the run and desperate, Lenny McAlister has found his way onto the wooded parkland of Brackwell, (a country estate bathed in fading grandeur). He can't believe his luck when he is mistaken for the spiritual guru Running Stag. But Brackwell is not all it seems, and Lenny quickly finds himself sucked into the world of a bizarre family and onto a mind-bending spiritual journey of self-discovery, love, sacrifice and oak leaf tea.

From the team behind The Incomers and premiering at North Devon Theatres prior to a national tour, Running Stag is a funny, dark, powerful story about love, family & spirituality from the pen of poet, writer and broadcaster Murray Lachlan Young.

A heart-warming wartime tale from the UK's leading full mask theatre company who last year brought us Finding Joy.

When Flo, a feisty seventy-something, learns that the hospital she trained at during the Second World War is being demolished, she decides to take one last look. Her illicit visit becomes a personal celebration of friendship, courage, adventure and romance.

Nursing Lives is a love story set in the early 1980s of Thatcher's Britain, and takes us back to the hard-working, heart-breaking, swing-dancing world of the UK's wartime hospitals.

Like all Vamos Theatre shows, Nursing Lives is wordless, telling its story through physical communication, a strong visual design and an original soundtrack.

See page 36 for Vamos Theatre workshop

Yamato Drummers of Japan

Bakuon

When: Weds 29 April, 7.45pm | Genre: music | Venue: Queen's Theatre | Tickets: £25.95, m £21.95, family £18.95, yp £16.95

Includes £1.50 Love Arts contribution. A £1 booking fee will be added per transaction

The Yamato Drummers of Japan take the ancient art of taiko drumming and bring it bang up-to-date in an exhilarating display of expertise and athleticism that has thrilled audiences worldwide. Using their whole bodies to expertly control the rhythms, Yamato leaves audiences exhilarated by this high-energy, explosive production. The sheer physical strength and dynamic movement of the drummers is as impressive as the music, in this visually spectacular show.

'They fill the stage with huge beautiful drums and beat seven bells out of them with phenomenal skill.' The Daily Telegraph

🕒 1hr 45mins 📍 G 5 🚗

Beautifully romantic, touchingly funny and often unbearably poignant, Austen's most personal novel is brought to the stage by Hotbuckle Productions.

Anne Elliot and Frederick Wentworth were once hopelessly in love. Persuaded by her family that he is not of her standing, she ends their engagement and he leaves for the sea.

Anne soon realises her mistake and spends the next eight years regretting her decision.

Following on from the success of David Copperfield 'superb... a master class in stage adaptation' and Les Misérables '... pure brilliance' the Regency world explodes into life with Hotbuckle's trademark ensemble style.

Sex in Suburbia

🕒 2hrs 20mins 📍 G 16

Book an unforgettable date with the hit comedy of the year.

Claire Sweeney stars in and co-writes this brand new comedy about dating, men and finding Mr Right.

Penny Crowe is the host of a late-night phone-in and as Britain's leading Agony Aunt, she takes calls about every date from hell and the occasional one from heaven. She is more than happy to dish out relationship advice, but is she as happy to take it...?

Packed full of sensational songs including I'm Every Woman, I Want To Break Free and Somebody Else's Guy, this show is based on real stories from real women; this is the story of all of our lives.

Contains strong language and adult themes.

'Hitting the comedy G-spot.'

Includes £1.50 Love Arts contribution. A £1 booking fee will be added per transaction

Genre: drama | Venue: Queen's Theatre 🕒 2hrs 20mins 📺 📶 📺 📺

Following its record breaking West End run, this powerful new production of Reginald Rose's gripping courtroom thriller Twelve Angry Men has been hailed as the 'classiest, most intelligent drama in the West End'. It brings to the stage the taut brilliance of the 1957 three-time

Academy Award nominated film which was produced by and starred Henry Fonda, and is considered to be one of the great 'must-see' movies of all time. A jury has murder on their minds and a life in their hands as they decide the fate of a young delinquent accused of killing his father. But what appears to be an open and shut case soon becomes a huge dilemma as prejudices and preconceived ideas about the accused, the trial and each other turn the tables every which way, until the nail-biting climax...

Now it's your turn to witness a 'Brilliant', 'Riveting', 'Triumph' of a show 'Reginald Rose's cracking courtroom thriller has to be the classiest, most intelligent drama in the West End' Sunday Telegraph

Community and Education Projects at the Landmark Theatre

Family Arts
Standards
with Family and Childcare Trust

The North Devon Theatres' Trust does not simply present performances - we are deeply committed to developing a wider understanding and appreciation of the arts.

We offer a wide range of learning and participation opportunities within our theatres. Our team of experienced teachers creatively work with a wide range of subject matter and topics appealing to any age range or ability. Throughout the year we run regular workshops and projects specifically created to support the curriculum, individual workshops or projects lasting over a series of weeks/terms.

We also offer young people the opportunity to achieve their Bronze, Silver and Gold Arts Award through our Young Producers schemes.

Vamos Theatre Workshop

Fri 24 April, 4pm to 6pm | Age: 10 - 25
Workshop is free with performance ticket

A Vamos Theatre full mask show is wordless, telling its story through physical communication, supported by strong visual design and an original soundtrack.

Drawing from the current touring production of Nursing Lives (see p29) the workshop will introduce young actors to its full mask theatre techniques.

Please visit our website to find out more information about our comprehensive education programme or contact our Education Officer, Carol Turner on: t: 01271 86 92 16 e: carol.turner@northdevontheatres.org.uk

We are very grateful to the following grant-makers for their support:

J. Paul Getty Jnr Charitable Trust, Bridge Trust Barnstaple, Ernest Cook Trust, ESG Robinson Charitable Trust, Ilfracombe Rugby Club, Ilfracombe Ladies Circle, Fremington Bingo Club, ND Flag, Davie-Barnstaple Trust, Austin & Hope Pilkington Trust, Barbara Saunders Trust, Elmgrant Trust and Anonymous Trust

BBC 10 Pieces

BBC 10 Pieces (bespoke project) is a collaboration between Devon Music Education Hub, North Devon Theatres, Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra and the BBC.

The aim of the project is to introduce a generation of school children to 10 pieces of classical music and to act as a catalyst for creative activity and help schools deliver the music curriculum.

There are 3 phases: Inspiration, Exploration & Creativity, Presentation and Performance.

Activities will include:

- Screening of the BBC 10 Pieces at the Landmark Theatre
- CPD sessions for teachers
- Outreach workshops in Barnstaple and Ilfracombe
- Loan of instruments for your school
- Performances by BSO musicians at the Queen's and Landmark Theatres of select pieces
- Optional opportunity to perform at the Northern Devon Summertime Celebration (Queen's Theatre) and Mix 2015 (Westport)

All work is supported with resources from the BBC and via Devon Music Education Hub.

Supporting Your Theatres

Friends of North Devon Theatres

Our dedicated volunteer fundraising committee has organised some amazing events to help raise funds for the North Devon Theatres.

Friends' Tea Dances

When: Various dates throughout each month, 2.30pm
Venue: Landmark Pavilion | Tickets: £5

Join us for this good old-fashioned afternoon. Enjoy afternoon tea, meet new friends and dance the afternoon away.

Please contact our Box Office for dates.

Speed Crafting

When: Wed 22 April, 6.45pm
Venue: Queen's Theatre, Gallery Cafe | Tickets: £10

Following our previous sell-out speed crafting event, this popular fundraising evening makes a welcome return. A marvellous chance to try your hand at different crafts. Select the three crafts of your choice (see our website for details), and come and get crafty with the Friends.

Book your ticket through our Box Office.

Golden Seat Draws

A chance to win money and raise funds at the same time...

If you would like to help at fundraising events contact our Friends on:
T: 07870 334534 | E: friends@northdevontheatres.org.uk

Throughout the year the Friends of North Devon Theatres hold Golden Seat Draws at selected performances at both the Queen's Theatre and Landmark Theatre as a fundraising initiative for North Devon Theatres' Trust.

Tickets are sold prior to the performance and a winning seat number is selected at random during the interval giving the winner the chance to win half the funds taken. Tickets are £1.00 each and participants need to be 16+. Find us in the Foyer...

Membership Scheme

As a Supporter or Member you will get substantial discounts off the price of many shows...

NDT Supporter
£50 annual subscription

NDT Member
£25 annual subscription

Both schemes give you access to lots of savings on ticket prices, look out for the 'm' on each show.

In this brochure alone there are £121 of savings to be made.

For full information on all the benefits visit our website or pick up a leaflet from our Box Offices.

Volunteers

If you can spare some time we are always looking for volunteers...

We are very grateful to all the volunteers who help us across the organisation; our Friends Committee and those who help with stewarding or maintenance at the theatres; the impact they have is so valuable in helping us to run our charity. If you like the idea of spending a few hours a week as part of our vibrant team then please get in touch. Contact Jemma Wheeler on:
