June just wouldn't be the same without it; an explosion of theatre ignites itself in Barnstaple. 32 companies from across the UK and beyond presenting over 100 performances including high-drama, low-comedy, dance, cabaret, live film, spoken word, family entertainment - and much much more.

Venue: Queen's Theatre, The Baptist Hall, St Anne's Arts & Community Centre

Tickets: £5 (£3) each, Frequent Fringers £15 (for 6 shows)

As with other Fringe Festivals, TheatreFest is not curated - companies are chosen by open draw. There's a great breadth of talent and experience on show. Community companies and professional companies just starting out share venues with performers of many years' experience, many of whom regularly play Edinburgh and other national and international festivals and venues.

Fringe TheatreFest has a well-deserved reputation as an exceptionally friendly festival. A lot of animated chat and socialising surrounds the serious business of seeing shows. Because of this, companies just love coming back year on year. So there will be faces familiar to regular Fringe TheatreFest-goers as well as a raft of companies totally new to North Devon.

Most performances take place in three venues within the Queen's Theatre, plus the Baptist Hall in Boutport Street and St Anne's Arts & Community Centre in Church Walk. But also look out for an intimate performance for two in the streets of Barnstaple.

Once again, ticket prices have been kept the same and this includes the Frequent Fringer ticket: for £15 you can see any six shows, that's just £2.50 a time.

For full details visit www.theatrefest.co.uk or pick up a TheatreFest brochure (available from April).

Written by J M Barrie, this new version is by Trevor Nunn & John Caird

A creative interpretation of Barrie's classic tale, devised from workshops and theatre skills, built from the imagination and energy of the young people performing in this production.

Sir James Barrie gave the copyright of Peter Pan to the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond Street, London in 1929, later confirmed in his will when he died in 1937. The Hospital has continued to benefit from this generous gift ever since.

This adaptation was written with kind permission of the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond Street, London. This amateur production is presented by arrangement with Josef Weinberger Ltd.

Seating Plans

Supporting Your Theatres

A little help from our Friends...

Our Friends are amazing volunteers and the funds they raise help make coming to the Theatres that bit more special.

You are invited to sit comfortably at the Friends' Fashion Show on Wednesday 25 March. See this season's designs and pamper yourself with beauty products and services, too! Tickets are £5 from our Box Office and all proceeds will go towards the Friends' support of North Devon Theatres' Trust.

Friends' Tea Dances

When: Various dates throughout each month, 2.30pm

Venue: Landmark Pavilion | Tickets: £5

Join us for this good old-fashioned afternoon. Enjoy afternoon tea, meet new friends and dance the afternoon away.

Please contact our Box Office for dates.

Golden Seat Draws

A chance to win money and raise funds at the same time...

Throughout the year the Friends of North Devon Theatres hold Golden Seat Draws at selected performances at both the Queen's Theatre and Landmark Theatre as a fundraising initiative for North Devon Theatres' Trust.

Tickets are sold prior to the performance and a winning seat number is selected at random during the interval giving the winner the chance to win half the funds taken. Tickets are £1.00 each and participants need to be 16+.

Find us in the Foyer...
