Tim Whitehead's Personal Standards Quartet

Tim Whitehead (sax), Liam Noble (piano), Oli Hayhurst (bass) and Milo Fell (drums)

Former Loose Tubes and Nucleus tenor saxophonist and composer Tim Whitehead is regarded as one of the finest jazz artists of his generation. Gorgeous, rhapsodic melodies with bebop, soul, funk and Latin influences, his compositions are universally praised for their grace, economy and passion. Featuring BBC Jazz Awards 2007 nominee Liam Noble on piano.

'Tim Whitehead must be considered one of our most eminent saxophonists.' Jazz UK

Paul Rishell and Annie Raines

Blues vocals, guitars and harmonica

The most entertaining country blues artists active today. Paul and Annie have recorded with Susan Tedeschi, Pinetop Perkins and Rory Block, and continue to perform as members of John Sebastian's J-Band. Their close attention to pre-war acoustic blues styles is legendary, recognised with two W.C. Handy Awards and four nominations for Best Acoustic Blues Album.

'...a wide embrace of styles, from Delta heartache to Chicago drive, that make for world-class blues.' Pulse Magazine

■ Thurs 25 Oct

Performance poetry with Apples & Snakes

Matt Harvey; Kim Trusty; Sara-Jane Arbury; Nathan Filer. Compere; Elvis McGonagall

After their great Festival success, Apples & Snakes presents four more poets poking their heads above the parapet: Matt Harvey (If love can build a bridge, can affection put up a shelf?) has published four books and co-created One Night Stanza on BBC R4; Kim Trusty from Birmingham, who is also a playwright and has toured with Word Temple; Sara-Jane Arbury, a finalist in the UK Allcomers Poetry Slam and writer-in-residence for Herefordshire; and Nathan Filer, a formidable slammer whose work has featured on BBC R4, R7 and on Michael Rosen's New Year's Quiz.

Art Themen Quartet

Art Themen (sax), John Critchinson (piano), Andy Cleyndert (bass), Spike Wells (drums)

Art Themen was long associated with the classic Stan Tracey Quartet, recording amongst many the Tracey re-issue of the seminal composition Under Milk Wood and the jazz quartet-defining, exuberant Captain Adventure (the extended version of which has just been released to great acclaim). Art's free-flowing style is more than matched by pianist John Critchinson, who as part of another classic quartet (Ronnie Scott's) has accompanied just about every big American name, including Johnny Griffin and George Coleman.

'... the flair, passion and sheer ingenuity...can be quite breathtaking.' Dave Gelly, The Observer

Let us tempt your taste buds with our excellent range of food and drink from our two café bars.

The Gallery Café

At the Queen's Theatre, Tuesday to Saturday, 10am to 3pm.

Our refurbished café serves fine pastries, fresh pasta dishes, crisp salads and a selection of paninis and sandwiches. Fully licensed, the café uses Fairtrade coffee and tea and is child and family friendly. A classic yet contemporary respite from the bustle of Barnstaple.

The Rendezvous Café

At the Landmark Theatre open Tuesday to Sunday.

With its large ocean-facing terrace and breathtaking views, the Rendezvous makes a perfect setting to enjoy great food and the best outlook in Ilfracombe. Open for morning coffee, light lunches and afternoon tea.

Pre-show suppers at the Queen's Theatre

Make a night of it and enjoy a pre-show supper. Ask for details of availability and menu details when booking your tickets.

North Devon Folk Festival

A North Devon Festival Event

An exciting new weekend event featuring over twenty five artists, representing the best of folk music, simultaneously across three stages: the theatre, pavilion and marquee on the green. You choose which stage, which artists, space permitting.

Over 25 artists on 3 stages

Headline artists for the weekend include 'national treasure' Billy Bragg, famous for his blend of folk, punk-rock and protest music, American legend Guy Clark, Northumbrian piper and mean fiddler Kathryn Tickell and her band. The weekend also features Jaqui McShee's Pentangle, recent winners of the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards Lifetime Achievement and the breathtaking and ground-breaking band Flook.

Friday night is free and will showcase North Devon artists in the Pavilion, but numbers will be limited. Performances on Saturday and Sunday run from midday to midnight. In addition there will be music sessions led by M'Larkey and The Oogle Band, trade stalls, real ales and fine foods.

Organised in conjunction with Ken & Sue Bradburn of Emerging Music.

Northanger Abbey

Written by Jane Austen
Adapted & directed by
Tim Luscombe

From the company that brought you Jamaica Inn, Salisbury Playhouse presents this immaculate production containing all of Austen's classic elements: love, marriage, tedium of high society and the conflicts of marriage for love.

Capturing Austen's incomparable irony and acerbic comment, Tim

Luscombe's adaptation will transport you back to a time of high-tea in fashionable Bath and an era when it was perfectly plausible for an Abbey to hold secrets filled with danger and mystery.

Post-show discussion following Tuesday evening performance. Signed performance Thursday evening.

The Dead Ringer from Hell

The Meat Loaf rock opera

The only American Meat Loaf show in Europe, this rock opera is much more than a tribute show; it's a love story mixing fantastic music with comical banter between the classic songs.

Enter the true spirit of the evening and come dressed as a biker or a rocker and join the fun and madness that is truly Meat Loaf.

They sold their souls for rock and roll.

Guy Barker Jazz

The Amadeus Project

World-class trumpeter Guy Barker leads an outstanding 14-piece orchestra for two of his brilliant new compositions inspired by Mozart - The Amadeus Suite (originally commissioned for the Mainly Mozart Festival in San Diego) and dZf, a revamped version of The Magic Flute which Barker has transformed into a 'jazz noir thriller'. The latter is a BBC Radio 3 commission and features the gifted actor Michael Brandon, famous for his roles in Dempsey and Makepeace and, more recently, Jerry Springer, The Opera. Global Mix is releasing The Amadeus Project as a double CD to coincide with the tour.

'The magic is certainly present in Barker's magnificent composition, and this is just the beginning for dZF'.
Sholto Byrnes, The Independent.

Guy Barker Jazz Orchestra:

Narrator: Michael Brandon

Trumpets: Guy Barker, Nathan Bray,
Tom Rees Roberts, Byron Wallen.

Trombones: Barnaby Dickinson,

Orchestra

Alistair White, Mark Frost.
Saxes: Rosario Giuliani, Graeme Blevins, Per "Texas" Johannson, Phil Todd. Piano/Hammond: Jim Watson. Bass: Phil Donkin. Drums: Ralph Salmins.

The Stylistics

As well as The Spinners and The O'Jays, The Stylistics were one of the leading Philly Sound soul groups to come from legendary producer Thom Bell's stable.

During the early 70s the band had twelve straight top ten hits, including You Are Everything, Betcha by Golly, Wow, Break Up to Make Up, and You Make Me Feel Brand New.

The Stylistics were one of the smoothest and sweetest soul groups of their era and continue to perform as only they can. What started as an innocent union of 2 bands thirty years ago, is now one of the longest standing and most accomplished soul bands to grace the R&B scene.

Show of Hands

With Miranda Sykes and special guest Slaid Cleaves

England's finest and most popular roots duo make a very welcome return. A potent mix of Phil Beer, who 'can play nearly every stringed instrument known to man' (The Scotsman) and the inspired Steve Knightley, described by Mike Harding as 'one of England's greatest singer songwriters'

Following appearances at Glastonbury and Cambridge Festivals, Steve and Phil embark on a major tour with Miranda Sykes (double bass/vocals) and from Austin, Texas, special guest Slaid Cleaves.
