Guy Barker & Ian Shaw Go to The Movies

These two jazz legends kick start the opening of the fifth Barnstaple Fringe.

Barker is back. The award-winning trumpeter, composer and broadcaster, joins forces with award-winning jazz vocalist, pianist and broadcaster, Ian Shaw, in an evening celebrating the fabulous force that is The Cinema. With no apology, this jazz odd couple presents a musical babylon for all tastes . . . but no popcorn or children!

The idea for this piece came from a BBC Jazz Awards launch where Guy (the MD for the awards) and Ian duetted on a ballad, reducing an eminent critic to tears.

This outstanding duo promise to create all the drama, comedy and romance inherent in their carefully chosen movie songs and themes.

Eating in

Let us tempt your taste buds with our excellent range of food and drink from our two café bars.

The Gallery Café

Open Mondays from 25th Feb

At the Queen's Theatre, Monday to Saturday, 10am to 3pm.

The Gallery serves fine pastries, fresh pasta dishes, crisp salads and a selection of paninis and sandwiches. Fully licensed, the café uses Fairtrade coffee and tea and is child and family friendly. A classic yet contemporary respite from the bustle of Barnstaple.

The Rendezvous Café

At the Landmark Theatre open seven days a week.

With its large ocean-facing terrace and breathtaking views, the Rendezvous makes a perfect setting to enjoy great food and the best outlook in Ilfracombe. Open for morning coffee, light lunches and afternoon tea.

Pre-show suppers at the Queen's Theatre

Make a night of it and enjoy a pre-show supper. Ask for details of availability and menu details when booking your tickets.

The Big Ballet

A comedy ballet of weighty elegance and adorable humour

The plus-sized Russian ballerinas from The Big Ballet will certainly make their presence felt when they bend the boards in Ilfracombe this spring. Adding new weight to traditional ballet their performance will break all common notions of what ballet should be like.

These 16 ladies, each weighing no less than 17 stone, always enchant their audiences with a collection of classical and modern ballet pieces. This hilarious comedy show is full of fun and astonishing choreography, proving that you shouldn't take life, or yourself, too seriously.

Performing together with the Fighting Club dance company, the wonderful music and gorgeous costumes complement the magic of the dancers perfectly.

Todd Miller & the Joe Loss Orchestra

The big band music of one of the best known light orchestras whose name was synonymous with the TV programme Come Dancing mark their debut performance in North Devon.

The Joe Loss Orchestra has been in operation since 1930 and never disbanded or reformed. When Joe Loss became too ill to perform at the end of the '80s, leadership was entrusted to Todd Miller who fronts the band today. Continuity is clearly an ingredient of the band's enduring appeal and it is reflected in their music - from tributes to Glenn Miller, Count Basie and Duke Ellington to the chart-toppers of today.

An Evening with Blowers

The voice of cricketstars in his own one-man show.

Henry Blofeld, one of Britain's most celebrated cricket commentators and the doyen of BBC Radio's Test Match Special, is famed as the voice of cricket and one of the great characters of the game.

Blowers, as he is affectionately known, is as renowned for his catchphrase - "my dear old thing"; for his musings on pigeons, double-decker buses, planes, tea ladies, and of course, cakes, as he is for his much-loved commentating prowess. He remains one of the most respected and knowledgeable commentators in the sport - and one of the most charming.

A must for cricket fans young and old alike, the show is a thoroughly quintessential British affair in which Henry trawls through his extraordinary life and career, and pays homage to his insatiable passion for cricket.

DANNY

The Champion of the World

by David Wood

The irresistible story-telling power of the world's most famous writer of children's fiction, Roald Dahl, is brought vividly to life in this production, packed full of colour, action and adventure.

Danny lives in a caravan with his dad - the most marvellous and exciting dad any boy ever had. But his father has a secret. When night comes, he poaches pheasants from Hazell's Wood. Mr Hazell, the biggest landowner in the district, wants to evict them both and the battle is on to save their home. How can one little boy defeat a rich and powerful landowner?

Funny, warm and moving, this captivating story is guaranteed to hold your interest whether you are closer in age to Danny or his dad; we hope you'll bring all your family to see this marvellous adaptation.

Maggie Bell, Zoot Money, Miller Anderson, Colin Hodgkinson, Colin Allen

These artists are the best in their field - they've been around the block a few times and performed with some of the greatest names in music over the past 40 years. They'll not only play music from those heady, foot stomping days and nights of the 60s but also feature the vocals of the wonderful Maggie Bell, one of the greatest blues and soul singers this country has produced.

This evening's entertainment is a must - if you like good music.

One of the greatest musicals from the West End is coming to Barnstaple as part of the North Devon Festival. Blood Brothers, the international smash hit musical has been hailed by the critics as one of the best musicals of all time and has triumphed around the world. Scooping up no less than four awards for Best Musical in London, seven Tony nominations on Broadway, and receiving a standing ovation at every performance, Blood Brothers is now in its 21st phenomenal year in the West End.

Set in Willy Russell's native Liverpool, it tells the captivating tale of twin boys, separated at birth only to be re-united by a twist of fate and a mother's haunting secret. The musical's

Angelina's Star Performance

English National Ballet has recently performed at Wembley Stadium (Concert for Diana) and the Royal Albert Hall (Swan Lake). Now you have the chance to see eight dancers from this world-renowned company performing Angelina's Star Performance at The Queen's Theatre.

Angelina Ballerina has been given the honour of putting on her very own performance of The Sleeping Beauty for the Queen in her splendid palace. It's Angelina's biggest challenge yet... will she manage to pull it off?

This magical introduction to ballet for children is a rare chance to see Angelina Ballerina dance her pirouettes and grand jetés in front of a live audience.

starring Rodney Bewes

Based on the writings of
Jerome K Jerome

Rodney Bewes has been an actor for 55 years, but is still best remembered for the popular television series The Likely Lads. Jerome K Jerome wrote over thirty books and nine plays but is best known for Three Men in a Boat. In his new one-man show, Rodney brings to life Jerome's first book, a true story about three years of his life as an actor in the 1880s.

An hilarious journey through weekly repertory theatre, touring, pantomime, stock and fit up, until our hero swears never to darken a stage door again!

A close-up portrait of Alfie Boe, a young man with dark hair and a light beard, smiling warmly at the camera. He is wearing a dark, collared shirt. The background is a soft-focus outdoor setting with green foliage.

Alfie Boe

Tenor

Alfie Boe has emerged as one of the most exciting young tenors that this country has produced for many years.

Adopted by Classic FM as one of their Artists of the Year, through Classic FM's promotion and his critically acclaimed albums for EMI, Onward and his most recent release La Passione, he has become a favourite with British music lovers.

His appeal has also had audiences enchanted overseas, most notably in America where he received a Tony for his work in Baz Luhrmann's Broadway production of La Bohème.

For his debut performance at the Queen's Theatre, Alfie will be accompanied by a trio and will be performing a programme of Opera and Neapolitan arias. This will include Mozart, Puccini, Donizetti and songs from La Passione.

Bill Giles' Weather Show

A humorous outlook from the man who led the BBC weather team for 17 years, Bill Giles presents his one-man weather show.

- How did Michael Fish miss the hurricane in 1987?
- Why Ian McCaskill broadcasts without his shoes on!
- Will global warming affect you?
- All weather phenomena: - rainbows, lightning, thunder waterspouts, tornadoes and hurricanes.
- How hurricanes are born.
- Why some clouds are mistaken for UFOs.

An evening liberally splashed with anecdotes and the chance for the audience to chat informally with Bill both during the interval and after the show.

Simon Amstell is on tour...

Simon became a household name as the presenter of Channel 4's Popworld. Today he is the face of BBC2's Never Mind The Buzzcocks, winning him two British Comedy Awards and a Royal Television Society Award.

With his deliberately dry demeanour, Simon is engagingly honest and wonderfully sharp-minded in his humour and delivers his stand-up with plenty of charm as well as a few of those snide put-downs for which he is so famous.

Blazin' Fiddles

Blazin' Fiddles was created 10 years ago as a project for the Highland Festival. They have since become one of Scotland's top traditional bands playing from remote village halls to the BBC Proms at the Royal Albert Hall. The band have delighted audiences with their highlands and islands tunes and tales and during a performance, the audience has a rare opportunity to hear pieces featuring the regional styles of each fiddler followed by all hands jumping in for a wonderful explosion of music.

In the past decade no other band has quite captured the excitement, passion and the sensitivity of Scottish music. Fiddles and bows blaze away with guitar and piano for one of the most exciting and memorable fiddle ensembles ever to take the stage.
