The Gallery Sessions

Gallery Café, Queen's Theatre, Barnstaple

Boo Hewerdine

Boo was the founder member of 80's cult band The Bible. He has since gone on to have a very successful solo career both as a performer and songwriter. His songs have been covered by many including KD Lang and Natalie Imbruglia, and he was asked to re-record Bell Book and Candle for a climactic, award winning death scene on TV soap Emmerdale.

Boo has also established a parallel career as Eddi Reader's musical director and guitarist, and has written many songs for and with her.

However, performing live and solo is his real love and this is reflected in his relaxed and charismatic style which is very inclusive of his audience, and makes for an evening not soon forgotten.

ticket: £8

Julian Siegel Trio

Julian Siegel (sax), Greg Cohn (bass), Joey Baron (drums)

Julian has quickly established himself as both a remarkable writer and a powerful player in the UK and Europe, with his debut album Close-up creating quite a stir. In 2007 he was awarded the BBC Jazz Award for Best Instrumentalist and has toured with some major artists including Hermeto Pascoal and Andrew Hill and continues to be involved with the most influential British jazz groups today.

This trio originally came together as a Cheltenham International Jazz Festival commission, but has developed into a real meeting of musical minds. Siegel and the ace downtown New York rhythm section of Greg Cohen and Joey Baron create real fireworks and provide a perfect setting for fresh improvisations and great dialogue between the musicians. Their latest CD Live at the Vortex was released in November 08.

'... his wailing, swerving lines burst with character' John Fordham, The Guardian.

Apples & Snakes

Apples & Snakes return to the Gallery to deliver an evening of dynamic, moving and uplifting performance poetry.

This series of regular, intimate performances from poets who are best appreciated in a club atmosphere continues with a showcase of the hottest up-and-coming artists in the UK.

Andy Craven-Griffiths is a fast-rising star of the spoken word scene who has won slams from Glastonbury to Munich. He will be joined on the bill by three exciting and diverse poets, and a special guest host who will guide you through an evening of words and wonder.

£20 £55 12+

Wed 28 January, 8pm
tickets: £7

Phil Beer

One half of Britain's most successful acoustic duo Show of Hands, Phil's instrumental wizardry is well documented and has been utilised by countless artists over the years, the most notable being The Rolling Stones, Mike Oldfield and Steve Harley. He was for many years the lead guitarist and singer with the Albion Band and co-wrote many of their songs. He has also made many forays into film and television music as well as finding time to produce and record albums for other artists.

Phil Beer's solo gigs draw on the music that touches his heart and shows the amazing diversity of this talented musician.

Wed 11 February, 8pm
tickets: £10

Steve Grossman & Damon Brown

Steve Grossman (tenor sax), Damon Brown (trumpet), Robin Aspland (piano), Mark Hodgson (double bass), Sebastian De Krom (drums).

US sax star Steve Grossman replaced Wayne Shorter in the famous Miles Davis group in 1969 and in the 70s toured with Elvin Jones, becoming an established hard-bop player throughout the world. Now living in Paris, he and Damon Brown, one of the UK's leading jazz musicians and composers, have created this exceptional quintet which has played at many festivals (including the Terrassa Jazz Cava & The Jamboree in Barcelona) and has a new CD due for release in early 2009.

Steve's recent playing can be found on two recent CDs, his Quartet featuring Michel Petrucciani and a quintet with Johnny Griffin.

Damon works throughout Europe, with Killer Shrimp (with Ed Jones) and as a side man with jazz greats Benny Golson, Dave Liebman and Doug Rainey.

tickets: £10

Chris Sherburn & Denny Bartley

Chris Sherburn and Denny Bartley have been bringing their unique sound to audiences across Europe and America since the early 90s, when a chance meeting at a music session created one of folk music's most enduring partnerships.

Their soul-stirring songs, exhilarating tunes and a love of the craic, (Chris, concertina and craic! and Denny, vocals and guitar), ensure that no two concerts are ever the same. They will be doing only a limited number of gigs in 2009, so don't miss this opportunity to see them.

Eating in

Let us tempt your taste buds with our excellent range of food and drink from our two café bars.

The Gallery Café

At the Queen's Theatre, Monday to Saturday, 10am to 3pm.

The Gallery serves fine pastries, crisp salads and a selection of paninis and sandwiches. Fully licensed, the café uses Fairtrade coffee and tea, is family friendly and fully accessible. A classic yet contemporary respite from the bustle of Barnstaple.

The Rendezvous Café

At the Landmark Theatre, open Tuesday to Sunday.

With its large ocean-facing terrace and breathtaking views, the Rendezvous makes a perfect setting to enjoy great food and the best outlook in Ilfracombe. Open for morning coffee, light lunches and afternoon tea.

Pre-show suppers at the Queen's Theatre

Make a night of it and enjoy a pre-show supper. Ask for details of availability and menu details when booking your tickets.

Comedy Club at The Seafront in association with Barnstaple's Comedy Club at The Riverfront

Comedy connoisseurs in Devon are already flocking to Barnstaple's monthly comedy club at the Riverfront Café in Barnstaple. DJ and promoter, Wendy May has now extended the Club's success to Ilfracombe. The new Club night, held on a Friday, mid-month, will feature two great acts each night from the comedy circuit of Jongleurs & Jesters clubs; following the comedy Wendy May will DJ 'til midnight.

To see the line-up visit the theatres' website at www.northdevontheatres.org.uk.

The World's No.1 U2 Tribute Show

If you like U2, you'll love this show

'Almost better than the real thing'
Evening Post

With blinding lights to rake the auditorium and a sound that is unmistakably pure U2, this group set a new standard in the art of tribute shows. U2 may have the Edge, but ZU2's lead guitarist replicates the woolly hatted one's fluid style to a tee. Bono's doppelganger has perfectly captured this legendary performer's throaty rasp and effortless falsetto. Never mind a quiet night in - treat yourself to a loud night out!

Hits will include; Sunday Bloody Sunday, Where the Streets Have No Name, Pride (In the Name of Love).

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain

A fantastic family show

Having enjoyed a sell-out performance at the Queen's Theatre last year, the Ukulele Orchestra return with their unique blend of musical genius and madness. Warm, entertaining and funny, this all-strumming, all-plucking, all-singing ensemble is an unforgettable musical force.

You may never think about music in the same way once you've been exposed to the Ukes. With their vast repertoire the players believe all genres of music are available for reinterpretation, as long as they are played on the ukulele.

Zion

A tribute to Bob Marley

Not just a Jamaican singer, guitarist, songwriter and activist, Bob Marley is without question, the most widely-known performer of reggae music the world has ever seen and one of this century's major musical forces, a man whose ripples have emanated into our popular culture long after his untimely demise.

Two hours of Marley magic will take you on a unique trip, leaving you dripping in audio sunshine. Be uplifted and energised by Marley's music and his mantra, as this nine-piece band deliver all the great songs you'd expect: I Shot the Sheriff, No Woman No Cry, Three Little Birds, Exodus, Could You be Loved, Jammin, Redemption Song, One Love, and many more.

There is no better way to remind you of the true musical greatness of Bob Marley.

Mind to Mind

Master mind-reader Marc Paul, the star of TV's Mind Games, promises to take you on a journey to make you question what your mind is truly capable of.

By integrating the psychology of perception, persuasion, and personality he creates convincing demonstrations of mind-reading.

Marc's remarkable skills have fascinated and amazed audiences all over the world.

Tom Jones, Martine McCutcheon and Alistair McGowan were amazed when he appeared alongside them on the Michael Parkinson Show.

Be prepared to believe in the impossible, no thought inside your head will be safe.

With special guests Ken Nicol and Phil Cool

Enjoy an evening of great music with Fairport Convention, the legendary originators of British folk rock. The band has attracted critical acclaim for over four decades and for their 2009 winter tour they will be joined by Ken Nicol and Phil Cool.

Ken Nicol, guitar virtuoso and member of the renowned folk-rock band Steeleye Span, holds audiences spellbound with his self-penned instrumentals and brilliantly-crafted songs. Phil Cool, the famous comedian and impressionist, shows his more serious side as a singer and songwriter...though you can bet there will be plenty of fun and laughter, too.

Following the Agatha Christie Theatre Company's hugely successful productions of The Hollow, The Unexpected Guest, and most recently And Then There Were None; the fourth instalment in the highly acclaimed series promises to be the most intriguing and entertaining yet.

When Clarissa discovers a dead body in her drawing-room, she tries to dispose of it before her Foreign Office diplomat husband returns home with a government VIP guest in tow.

Equipped with an over-active imagination, Clarissa finds real life murder a little too hard to handle! Having persuaded her houseguests to help her, it soon becomes apparent that the dead man was not unknown to everyone amongst them.

Homeward Bound plays Simon & Garfunkel

The harmonies of Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel remain a cherished sound of the sixties and the seventies.

For the first time in North Devon relive the music and the memories of those times as Homeward Bound perform many of the famous duo's classic songs.

John Hylton shows his guitar skills as Paul Simon and proudly introduces his son, Allen as Art Garfunkel.

Being father and son, their voices blend perfectly in the harmonies of Mrs Robinson, Sound of Silence, The Boxer and Paul Simon's solo masterpieces such as Late in the Evening and You Can Call me Al. With John Hylton's talented live band, this show is sure to leave you Feeling Groovy.

The romantic ballet Giselle is a classic, considered to be the Hamlet of ballet and equally popular today as when it was first performed over 160 years ago. The world-renowned Moscow Ballet - La Classique demonstrate their continued quality of dance and performance in this atmospheric production. With its haunting musical score, Giselle is evocative, moving and powerful as it shifts scenes between the fantastic, ethereal and rustic existential worlds. Little wonder it was proclaimed the triumphant successor to La Sylphide the greatest ballet of its time.

Plus Debbie McGee

Paul Daniels is without doubt, one of the most accomplished magicians in the world, and certainly one of the most exciting. Add to this a unique comedy style and you have a complete entertainer who has delighted millions of people from all walks of life.

However, his fame and achievements are not just confined to the UK where he is a household name; he is also widely recognized as a world-class entertainer in the USA, Canada, New Zealand, Germany, Spain and Japan. Amongst his numerous achievements, he has starred in his own hugely successful West End Theatre Show, headlined in Las Vegas and Broadway, as well as performing more unique magic on TV than any other magician in history.

The Wurzels

Plus special guest

Undoubtedly the West Country's finest musical export; a combination of haystack-headed, cider-soaked, dung-booted and not-quite-so-young Somerset lads whose traditional Scrumpy 'n' Western music is as popular today as it was over 40 years ago.

Academy of St Martin in the Fields Chamber Ensemble

The Academy of St. Martin in the Fields Ensemble was formed in 1959 by a group of 11 enthusiastic musicians whose aim was to perform in public without a conductor. Their first three recordings led to a succession of long-term contracts, and the Academy quickly established themselves as one of the most recorded and highly-regarded ensembles in classical music, winning many international awards over the past 50 years.

Moya Brennan

The voice of Clannad

After many years as the voice of Clannad, this spring, Moya Brennan will be embarking on a 14 date solo tour, along with her band of six musicians, to promote her new CD Heart Strings, which features both solo numbers with the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic together with classic Clannad tracks.

As one of Ireland's most respected acts the show will see Moya playing a range of traditional Celtic instruments, including the Irish harp and will feature Clannad numbers as well as songs from her solo career.

Her music has graced many international film soundtracks, most notably Clannad's breakthrough record, Theme From Harry's Game in 1982 which was 10 years later used as the Patriot Games soundtrack.

His London Purcell Room debut in 2007, was described by Hilary Finch in The Times: 'It was clear that here was a musician of quick, finely honed responses and firm, focused tone.'

Lara Dodds-Eden is the current winner of the Ivan Sutton Chamber Music Memorial Award and has appeared in recitals at the Guildhall, the Barbican 'Mostly Mozart' Festival and in the City of London Festival.

Programme includes

Mendelssohn - Sonata for Cello and Piano in D

Chopin - Introduction & Polonaise

Your role can make a difference

We need your help so that we can maintain our theatre buildings and continue to present the best shows. You really can make a difference. We are asking you to add just 50 pence to each ticket you buy to add to our buildings maintenance fighting fund. Last year we spent over £50,000 on the buildings alone. And if you Gift Aid it, as a charity we can claim an extra 25% from the government at no cost to yourself.

Todd Carty says

'On my recent visit, I leafed through the brochure and was amazed at the breadth of programming. It's quite astonishing, something for everyone, and more.

As an audience member I imagine you consider yourself very lucky to have such facilities on your doorstep. I urge you, therefore, to support the theatres and give that 50p if you can, to help build its fighting fund to maintain the buildings and improve the equipment. Thank you.'

Fascinating Aida

Dillie Keane, Adele Anderson & Liza Pulman

Not a comeback, just a quarter-century birthday celebration!

Britain's top female comedy trio are 25 years old! (well, older actually, but they have decided their Silver Jubilee can be celebrated for a few more years at least!)

Dillie Keane formed Fascinating Aida in 1983 and has tried to shake it off ever since. It keeps coming back to haunt her - and you!

25 years, five continents, six West End runs, six albums, five nominations (three Olivier, one Drama Desk, one Perrier), two books, one glorious transsexual and 784 sopranos on, the ladies are back, and it's not just for the money!

Join Dillie, Adele and Liza and be thrilled by the beauty of their harmonies, marvel at their hilarious rhymes and help them celebrate their auspicious birthday.

Happy Birthday Fascinating Aida!

Unaccompanied children of 12 years and over are welcome at most performances (except those with an age guidance limit indicated). Customers must ensure that if children are attending without a parent/guardian that they have safe travel to and from the theatre.

Children aged under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Access

The following information may prove useful if you have specific access requirements; however it is not exhaustive. Please do contact a member of our team if you have any queries. We are happy to assist.

Physical access

There are wheelchair spaces available in the stalls for every performance at the Queen's Theatre, accessed via a ramp from street level. The Gallery Cafe is situated on the first floor and is accessible by lift.

The Landmark Theatre offers wheelchair spaces for all performances. The Theatre, Pavilion and Rendezvous Café are all fully accessible. There is disabled parking on the Wilder Road car park next to the Landmark at the front of the building.

Both venues have accessible toilet facilities.

Minibus group

If you have a mobility problem, a disability that prevents you from getting out and about or if you do not feel safe driving at night, we now have the North Devon Theatres' Minibus Group. This service is able to pick you up from your home and take you to either the Queen's or Landmark Theatre to see the shows of your choice.

Covering the Woolacombe, Ilfracombe, Combe Martin and Berrynarbor areas, for a small fee, the Ilfracombe Community Transport bus will get you there; see the bus logo on the relevant shows. This season we are hoping to extend the service to include Barnstaple and Bideford.

To register for this service or for any further information please contact Janice Banks on 01271 86 56 55.

Hearing impaired

Both venues are fitted with an infra-red hearing system - please reserve equipment at time of booking.

Visually impaired

Guide dogs are welcome at both Theatres.

For other access requirements or further information please contact the Front of House Manager on 01271 327357 or email foh.qt@northdevontheatres.org.uk

Parking

There is limited disabled parking at the Queen's Theatre opposite the theatre entrance in Boutport Street and Butchers Row.
