Theatre Royal Bath Productions presents the West Yorkshire Playhouse production of

The History Boys

By Alan Bennett

One of the great plays of the decade, The History Boys is set in a school in the North of England, where a boisterous bunch of bright, funny sixth-form boys are attempting to gain entrance to Oxford and Cambridge whilst fending off the distractions of sport and sex. In Alan Bennett's much-loved play, staffroom battles and the anarchy of adolescence provide a rich vein of comedy.

The History Boys opened in May 2004 at the National Theatre to rave reviews and a sell-out run and went on to become one of its biggest ever hits, winning no less than 30 major awards including both Olivier and Tony Awards for Best New Play. In 2005, a film was made with the entire original cast, many of whom have subsequently become household names. This will be the first major revival of the play since the original National Theatre production.

'Blissfully funny... in short, a superb, life-enhancing play.'

Heidi Talbot

With John McCusker & Boo Hewerdine

Having cut her teeth as lead singer with the Irish American all-female outfit Cherish The Ladies, Heidi Talbot is right at home in the twin worlds of Irish traditional and roots music.

Talbot's 2008 CD, In Love + Light, propelled her into the spotlight as a singer with a hunger for lyrically challenging and melodically inventive songs. Produced by Eddi Reader and Boo Hewerdine, In Love + Light set Talbot on an Indie path that celebrated her traditional influences while giving her distinctive voice its own space.

Heidi tours as a trio with multi instrumentalist John McCusker and guitarist Boo Hewerdine

When not on tour Heidi is in demand as a recording artist, singing on new records by Idlewild, Eddi Reader, and Kris Drever. In Love + Light won an Indie Acoustic Award for best album and Heidi has been nominated for Best Female Vocalist at the 2009 Irish Music Awards.

Ian Dury said "No group has made it until The Barron Knights have spoofed them"

The hilarity induced by a night with the Barron Knights is the best pick-me-up the N.H.S. could give the population. Come along for your dose of laughter, it's a real tonic.

Following in his father's footsteps...

Landmark Theatre, Ilfracombe

Sat 18 September, 8.15pm

all seats: £16

Friends' ticket offer, all seats: £14

To work alongside a hugely successful father and mentor has to be the best apprenticeship anyone could wish for and it is only natural that Peter Donegan has inherited his father's charm and outstanding performing ability.

Playing acoustic guitar, banjo, mandolin, harmonica and piano, as well as taking over as front man with the Lonnie Donegan Band, Peter's voice is likened to his father's on songs such as Rock Island Line, Putting On The Style but, equally, Peter settles well into his own country rock and blues numbers which form a big part of his show.

Symphony Orchestra

Conductor: Libor Pesek, Soloist: Jacob Junek, Violin

The Czech National Symphony Orchestra (CNSO) was established relatively recently in 1993 by trumpeter Jan Hasenöhrl, although the spiritual father of the orchestra was the legendary conductor Zdeněk Košler. Happily, he recorded several CDs with them before his death in 1995. The American, Paul Freeman then took over as Chief Conductor and also as artistic director.

17 years on, the CNSO now enjoys the international reputation that Košler dreamed of, and performances in Prague and throughout the world are seriously sought-after events. Tonight another highly-respected conductor, with a truly international reputation, Libor Pesek, will present an exceptional programme of romantic masterpieces.

Peter Alliss

An evening with the voice of golf

With his father, Percy Alliss, among the finest players of his generation, it was perhaps inevitable that Peter would also make a career in golf.

With his inimitable, relaxed, and anecdotal style, Peter is in constant demand for speaking and presentation engagements. He is noted for his depth of knowledge of the game of golf, his wit and off-the-cuff humour. Join him for stories, a question and answer session and laughter.

'When it comes to painting a picture with words, he's nothing short of Rembrandt...'
Daily Telegraph

'Alliss is one of the finest strikers of the golf ball in the land...' Daily Telegraph

Did you know?

Peter set records from the moment he was born - he weighed in at a then European record of 14lbs 11oz.

Peter helped Sean Connery with his golf before the filming of Goldfinger, which involved James Bond playing against the eponymous villain at what is now Stoke Park GC.

Peter played in the Ryder Cup on eight occasions - in the days before the team became Europe of course. In 1963 he beat Arnold Palmer and halved with Tony Lema on the same day.

The Lady of the Lake

· independentballetwales ·

With a unique and unpretentious style, the Welsh Independent Ballet is the perfect way to enjoy the highest possible standard of dance and storytelling.

In their return visit, Independent Ballet Wales presents a new and breathtaking version of the most famous Welsh folk tale of them all, the Lady of Llyn y Fan Fach, the fairy bride lured from her underwater home to become a farmer's wife on the Brecon Beacons. Taking their inspiration from Hilda Vaughen's adaptation of the heartbreaking tale, Iron and Gold, this young and vital group of dancers push back the barriers of classical ballet to flesh out the bones of the Welsh myth and bring to vivid life this tale of love and loss.

Featuring stunning costumes, breathtaking choreography and heartbreaking passion, this production is the most thrilling and entertaining dance event of the year.

Gallery Sessions

Queen's Theatre

Kristina Olsen (USA) Peter Grayling (Australia)

Kristina is one of the most entertaining and compelling performers on the international folk circuit. A fine instrumentalist (acoustic guitar, steel-body slide guitar, saxophone, concertina and piano) as well as a powerful songwriter with a big bluesy voice, Kristina has audiences around the world coming back for more.

Her mix of strong songs in the troubadour tradition, some jazz-inspired sounds and powerful bottleneck blues (as well as her hilarious storytelling) makes for an exciting and unforgettable evening.

Cellist Peter Grayling takes an instrument, rarely seen off the classical stage, and weaves it through Olsen's songs, enriching the ballads with a gorgeous, mellow sound and driving along the bluesy numbers with punchy playing and recklessly passionate solos!

This is a rare opportunity to see them together in the UK.

Performance Poetry

presented by Apples & Snakes

Apples & Snakes are back at the Gallery Sessions bringing you a fine feast of live performance poetry.

This September we welcome four poets, featuring Simon Mole, an emcee and poet whose writing and performance foregrounds the unseen and the unheard, the forgotten and the yet to occur. His work exists in the grey areas between spoken word, hip hop, and theatre, and this, his latest piece, is a story about Mike, Mike's mum, and Mike's mum's new boyfriend, Richard.

An evening set in the intimate club atmosphere of the Gallery Café, where you can best experience the thought provoking, dynamic and engaging work of four up and coming poets.

Tim Whitehead Quartet Colour Beginnings

Tim Whitehead, saxes
Liam Noble, piano
Pat Bettison, bass guitar
tbc, drums

One of Britain's foremost inventive performer and composer, Tim was artist-in-residence at Tate Britain for nearly a year, and premiered there in November 2009 a series of musical works written in response to an exhibition of Turner's amazing colour sketches. Tonight's performance will include projected images of the paintings.

The Tate residency allowed Tim to explore the links between Turner's artistic methods and musical improvisation. Turner commonly plotted his composition and colour harmonies before embarking on the finished design and it was this idea of Colour Beginnings that has inspired tonight's music, reacting to Turner's mastery of light, the way it falls on objects and the life it gives to compositions.

With a watercolour, or with a jazz solo, there is simply no turning back, whether it's from the first touch of brush on paper, or from the first agitation of the air with sound.

'Tim Whitehead is one of the finest contemporary British saxists, at least the equal of better-known players like Andy Sheppard and Courtney Pine'.

Drama residency The End of the Rainbow Written by Geoff Bamber

It is a well-known fact that at the end of every rainbow there is a pot of gold placed there by a leprechaun. Therefore, the appearance of a rainbow presents a pair of inept robbers with a chance of easy pickings. They simply have to find the pot of gold before anyone else turns up to collect it. Unfortunately their efforts are frustrated by a succession of inconvenient visitors getting in the way. Ultimately, however, the arrival of a real live leprechaun confirms that they are, for once, in the right place at the right time. If only it were that simple.

Four days of play fun with Mark Reeves (Wishee Washee in this year's Aladdin) who will be directing this comedy production for its performance at the end of week.
