Lady Chatterley's Lover

Performed by Hull Truck Theatre

Written by D.H. Lawrence, adapted by Nick Lane

Lady Constance Chatterley is trapped in a loveless marriage. Injured in battle, the baronet Clifford Chatterley is unable to satisfy the sexual desires of his wife and so she finds herself in the arms of another man. As the passionate love affair between Constance and Mellors the gamekeeper reaches its climax, the constraints of a class-led society are broken down and the two lovers find a fulfilment never experienced before.

Written in 1925, D.H. Lawrence's controversial work was banned from sale until 1960 for its frank and explicit depiction of sex and its portrayal of a passionate and adulterous love affair. Years ahead of it's time this work deals with sexual taboos that are still present in society even today.

Maureen Nolan, Claire King, Michelle Heaton and Leanne Jones

Real Women, Real Lives

Tailor-made for women, The Naked Truth is the hit comedy play from Dave Simpson, the writer of the smash-hit comedy Girls Night Out. Starring Maureen Nolan, Claire King (Emmerdale), Michelle Heaton (Liberty X) and Leanne Jones (Olivier award-winning star of Hairspray), this hit show is on its fifth tour, and has had people on their feet all over the UK. Set in a pole dancing class (the latest get-fit craze) The Naked Truth is a brilliantly funny comedy about sisterhood.

It's a women thing, as five very different women struggle hilariously to conquer pole dancing for an event to raise awareness and money for a breast cancer charity. As their stories unfold and unravel, they share laughter and tears in this hilarious, sad and ultimately moving play.

The Naked Truth is a poignant and uplifting comedy, a call to all women, and celebrating strength through adversity.

A show for women, about women, that men absolutely must see (if they dare!).
