60TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS

This year, we are celebrating the 60th anniversary of the Queen's Hall, (becoming the Queen's Theatre after a major renovation in 1993) with a series of special events and innovations. Our grand Open Day and Variety Show in September (page 7) is a real community project and showcases the very best of our local talent. You can visit the Museum of Barnstaple and North Devon and enjoy the 60 Years of Entertaining North Devon exhibition and finally, towards the end of the year, we welcome back Blackeyed Theatre fresh from their highly successful national tour of Kafka's The Trial, which opened with us in studio@QT at the start of this year. They are bringing a stunning new adaptation of Mother Courage and Her Children by Bertolt Brecht (page 28) This play was performed at the Queen's Hall in 1955 by Joan Littlewood's celebrated Theatre Workshop (with her playing the title role) as part of that year's Taw and Torridge Festival. This was not only the first English performance of Mother Courage but also the first performance in Great Britain of any of Brecht's plays.

NATIONAL THEATRE LIVE

The best of British theatre is regularly broadcast live from the National Theatre in London to the Landmark Theatre. We are pleased to announce the first of three productions starting on 6th September. Full details can be found in this brochure.

60TH ANNIVERSARY SOUVENIR PROGRAMME

These are now available to purchase from our Box Offices, Bars and Museum priced just £3 – it's a great publication and well worth a read!

CLASSICAL SEASON

The first part of the International Classical Concert Series following a Russian Romance theme starts in September (see page 10). We are pleased to offer a brand-new scheme; anyone under 25 years old will now only pay £5 for a ticket for any of these concerts.

BARNSTAPLE FRINGE

The Fringe returns in a brand new autumn slot, bringing you a range of intimate musical performances – many of which are free. Look out for the Fringe brochure which is available from September.

FOLK MUSIC

It's great news for folk music lovers this autumn with a bumper package, including top names such as Seth Lakeman, Kate Rusby and Spiers & Boden as well as fantastic young rising stars such as the Rua MacMillan Trio and Phillip Henry & Hannah Martin. As well as all that, there's our new Folk & Cider Festival in October.

PANTO MIME

Oh yes it is and this year it's the start of a new era for us as we are producing our own pantomime, Robin Hood.

We're thrilled that Maid Marian will be played by Laura Main, who is one of the rising stars of the moment and is featured in Call the Midwife. Joining her will be our wonderful Richard Alan (who was last with us in 2008 for Jack and the Beanstalk) who will be taking on the role of Dame and Jon Wadey (who stole the show last year) will play the wicked Sheriff.

NDT MEMBERSHIP

Our new membership scheme, launched in April, has had a wonderful response with many new Members and Supporters joining us – thank you. The scheme offers great savings and other benefits – there are 45 shows with a total of 84 performances in this season where discounts apply for NDT Members and Supporters providing a staggering £173 worth of potential savings. See page 38 for details of how to join.

DRAMA

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time

Starting the fourth season of National Theatre Live screenings is The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time, based on the international best-selling novel by Mark Haddon, adapted for the stage by Simon Stephens.

Mark Haddon's celebrated; multi-award-winning novel is beautifully and imaginatively adapted into a stage play for the first time and features a stellar cast including Matthew Barker, Niamh Cusack and Rhiannon Harper-Rafferty.

Christopher, fifteen years old, stands beside Mrs Shears' dead dog, Wellington. It has been separated with a garden fork, it is seven minutes after midnight and Christopher is under suspicion. He records each fact in his book to solve the mystery. He has an extraordinary brain, is exceptional at maths but ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. He has never ventured alone beyond the end of his road, he detests being touched and he distrusts strangers. But his detective work takes him on a frightening journey that turns his world upside down.

DRAMA

In an ancient, crumbling mansion, sheltering from the howling winds that tear across the surrounding desolate moorland, two men stumble across a dark and terrifying secret that will change their lives forever...

When a young book dealer, David Filde, is employed by a former associate of his uncle to catalogue an impressive library, he finds an incredible array of rare and antiquated books. But as a series of strange and unexplained events conspire to keep Filde from his work, he realises that if he is to convince his sceptical employer that the mysterious phenomena he is experiencing are real, they must journey together to the very edge of terror, and beyond, to discover the source of the ghostly night-time visitations...

Peter Bowles, one of the country's most popular actors, has starred in a memorable array of TV series including, of course, To the Manor Born; Lytton's Diary, Only When I Laugh, Rumpole of the Bailey and Executive Stress. He has more recently appeared on stage opposite Judi Dench in both Hayfever and The Royal Family in London.

James Roache has featured in TV dramas including ITV's Cold Blood and the feature Rise of the Footsoldier. His recent work includes a 20 episode story in Coronation Street as the deceptive rogue James Cunningham, on-screen grandson of Ken Barlow, who is played by his real life father William Roache.

Seckou Keita

Respecting a musical tradition that stretches back to the 13th Century and the Mandinka Empire of West Africa, Seckou is an established contemporary master of the Kora, the 21 stringed African harp. With his feet firmly rooted in the 21st Century and the identity of his heritage clear, Seckou is keen to experiment and develop fresh ideas. 2012 brings a new album, Miro, for release in September and a brand new show featuring an exciting seven-piece band.

This project represents a return to Seckou's family and the original influences that inspired him as a young musician in Senegal; the results are truly magical.

Mother Courage and Her Children

by Bertolt Brecht

Blackeyed Theatre, in association with South Hill Park, presents this Bertolt Brecht classic.

"They're waging war for Almighty God and in the name of everything that's good and lovely, but look closer, they ain't so silly"
Mother Courage

Two ideologies collide in a conflict that stretches across a continent and threatens the balance of world power. In its midst, one woman, her three children by her side, sees an opportunity to survive, a way to profit from the slaughter by selling goods to both sides. And the time is about to come when, in her quest for material gain, she must make the ultimate sacrifice.

Regarded by many as the greatest play of the 20th century and even the greatest anti-war play of all time, Mother Courage And Her Children asks fundamental questions about the effects our beliefs have on the world and the role of ideology in society and world affairs.

Lee Hall's (The Pitmen Painters, War Horse screenplay) brilliant translation of Brecht's masterpiece is accessible, bang up to date and full of dark comedy. Brought to the stage by highly acclaimed Blackeyed Theatre with breathtaking ensemble performances and live music, Mother Courage And Her Children is a truly unforgettable theatrical experience.

Blackeyed Theatre thrilled audiences earlier this year with their performance of The Trial.

'Amazing production; Faultless execution; Brilliant'
Remote Goat (The Trial)

'One of the most innovative, audacious companies working in contemporary English theatre'
The Stage

Port Isaac's Fisherman's Friends Plus Special Guest

English folk music has enjoyed a renaissance in the last decade, especially in the West Country. Now, after their success at the 2011 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards, these shanty men of Port Isaac are out on the road to delight and enthral audiences with an incredibly rousing and joyful set of Shanties and Cornish folk songs.

The authentic sound of the shanty can be heard loud and clear via the mighty, brawny chorale of The Fisherman's Friends; between them, they are five baritones, two top tenors, two second tenors, and one bass; it makes a fat sound, a full sound, a solid wall of sound.

'The Fisherman's Friends gave a superb show, dominating the stage and filling the marquee with shanties and comedy.'

ROBIN HOOD

A sheriff-busting, arrow-shooting, tights-wearing, hog-roasting extravaganza of pantomime fun

Based on the much-loved English folk tale, Robin Hood will be an action-packed pantomime extravaganza with stunning new costumes, fantastic live music, brand-new script and the usual comedy mayhem you would expect from the Queen's Theatre pantomime.

Journey with us into the enchanted world of Sherwood Forest with Robin and his motley band of Merry Men as they take on the wicked Sheriff of Nottingham and battle to rescue Maid Marian from his evil clutches... and all without laddering their tights!

We are delighted to present star of BBC1's Call The Midwife, Laura Main as our fair Maid Marian, a welcome return from Richard Alan as our lovely-larger-than-life Dame (with a twist!), and Jon Wadey as the wicked Sheriff of Nottingham (last year's Herman the Henchman).

On target to be the Queen's Theatre's best ever Christmas show!

The North Devon Theatres' Trust does not simply present performances - it is deeply committed to developing a wider understanding and appreciation of the arts.

As part of this work - aimed at young and old alike - the Theatres run various schemes and activities to encourage people to find out more about the Theatres themselves; to become involved in performances; to meet players and performers; to take part, with the cast, in discussions about plays; to participate in workshops and other activities with theatre and dance companies.

We believe in helping young people realise their arts potential by gaining experience in our various schemes and projects. By participating in Make the Move classes and our workshops, it is possible to get further involved in residencies, performances (including being selected for the junior cast in our professional pantomimes), theatre trips and work experience.

MOVEZ MANIAX

"Look ... I'm Doing

MOVEZ MANIAX Youth Circus

Movez Maniax (part of our own Make the Move) is a circus young people aimed at young people aged between 6 and 18 years who would like to try a range of circus skills. Over the course of ten weekly workshops participants will practice a range of skills including juggling, unicycle, slackline, clowning, plate spinning, poi, acrobatics and much more.

Circus is about far more than learning new skills - though shouts of "I'm doing it!" are the biggest reward from our students. Circus is an art form that enhances creativity, confidence, critical thinking and concentration while improving self-awareness, balance and co-ordination. It has no social boundaries and is suitable for young people of all physical abilities - and most of all, it's FUN!

There will be a demonstration of all the work in progress at the end of term. In the spring term there will be an opportunity for some Maniax to progress to Trapeze, Chinese pole, Hoop and Tissu (silks) as well as developing their foundation circus skills.

For more information please visit our website or contact Carol Turner on 01271 869 216 or email carol.turner@northdevontheatres.org.uk

Thank you

We would like to thank all our Supporters, Members, Friends and Business Associates for their ongoing membership and say a big thank you to all our volunteers and Friends Committee, who give so much of their time, energy and expertise to help us. Without their support, we would not be able to provide you with such a wide range of arts and events.

To keep up with our ever-increasing maintenance costs, a Love Arts fee of £1.00 per ticket is included in the ticket price for each show. So by buying a ticket, you are helping us to repair, repaint and renovate our buildings inside and out, meaning we can keep attracting the best artists for you. Thank you.
