Looking Forward

Our team get excited about what we do here at North Devon Theatres. Here some of them share what they are looking forward to most in our new season...

Debbie Hadley
Box Office

“A trip to the theatre with the kids is a magical experience, and I firmly believe in starting them early! We’re looking forward to WASH, an interactive adventure where the audience can stay and play with the actors and props at the end of the performance. Universarama looks like fun too, explaining the secrets of the universe using puppets and household objects. (I think this will be one for the mums and dads too). I’m also looking forward to a good swashbuckle with Pirate Gran - let’s face it, who could fail to love a fearless cake baking pensioner with a pet crocodile?”

Carol Turner
Education

“I always get excited about the summer workshop programme, it’s the time of year we see the most new faces coming to try something out. Whether it’s art, design, dance, singing, acrobatics or circus - there is something for every young person to enjoy. One of the highlights is Swamp Circus who are joining us at the end of the summer for a week of activity. And for the first time we are opening up some workshops to 6 & 7 year olds, plus we’ve got an inflatable tumbling session for adults with a sense of fun – how good is that? See you in August.”

Alan Dodd
Director

“This spring and summer programme looks particularly enticing kicking off with Agatha Christie’s The Mousetrap, which is on tour for the very first time and there’s already 10 (yes ten!) RSC Live and NT Live screenings in the programme with I’m sure a few more to be announced over the next few months. The major highlight for me is Barnstaple Fringe Theatrefest, which is a wonderful lively and friendly celebration of theatre in its varied forms over 4 days in June. I will get to see a huge array of inspirational work and get to meet many of the directors and performers (as can anyone coming to see the performances).”

The legendary, record-breaking, Box Office smash hit thriller celebrates its 60th anniversary

A classic. A landmark. A legend. On tour for the first time.

The Mousetrap is famous around the world for being the longest running show of any kind in the history of British theatre - with over 25,000 performances it's a play to be proud of. To celebrate 60 incredible years on stage it's going on tour for the first time, this is a once in a life-time opportunity to see this masterpiece performed here at the Queen's Theatre.

The scene is set when a group of people gather in a country house cut off by the snow discover, to their horror, that there is a murderer in their midst. Who can it be? One by one the suspicious characters reveal their sordid pasts until at the last, nerve-shredding moment the identity and the motive are finally revealed.

In her own inimitable style, Dame Agatha Christie has created an atmosphere of shuddering suspense and a brilliantly intricate plot where murder lurks around every corner.

Universarama! Presented by SQUASHBOX THEATRE

Since the dawn of time, human beings have gazed up at the night sky and wondered...

What's up there?
How far does it go?
Does it ever end?

Well, wonder no longer! All these questions and more will be answered in Universarama! (possibly).

Along the way we will explore the solar system, study the stars and constellations, visit distant galaxies, and hear the fascinating story of John Couch Adams, the Cornishman who discovered Neptune.

Using only silly puppets, ridiculous and unnecessary props, simple household objects and assorted fruits and vegetables, let Professor Johnson take you on a journey to the edges of space and time!

Universarama! is a marvellous blend of spectacle, storytelling and cabaret, all contained within an accessible, funny and unique family show. It is the creation of Craig Johnson - actor, musician, puppeteer, astronomy fan, and long-standing member of Cornwall's renowned Kneehigh Theatre.

The Unremarkable Death of Marilyn Monroe

Dyad Productions

Monroe as we've never seen her before: alone in her bedroom, in dressing gown and slippers; no glitz, no glamour, no masks. Overdosed on pills, the woman behind the icon unravels her remarkable life and bares all, revealing a biting intelligence, a frustrated talent and an imperfect body. This stark confessional (DiMaggio, Gable, Miller, her mother - it's all here) offers a radical interpretation of this Hollywood legend and leads us, in real time, to the very moment of her death.

Barnstaple's Fringe Theatre Festival

It's back, it's bigger, it's better, it's Barnstaple's very own Fringe Theatre Festival and we are bursting with excitement at this year's line up.

Fringe TheatreFest attracts performers from across the UK and beyond - 32 companies presenting over 100 performances including high-drama, low-comedy, dance, improv, live film, spoken word, family entertainment - and much, much more.

Like other Fringe Festivals, TheatreFest is not curated - companies are chosen by open draw - and features community and student companies alongside professional performers, many of whom play Edinburgh and other national and international festivals and venues.

Fringe TheatreFest has a great reputation as a friendly festival amongst both audience and performers. We will be embracing companies from around the South West, the wider UK and from Amsterdam and Denmark along with regular local companies, including Mishmash Productions presenting their 5th spoken word extravaganza, Yo-Yo dance company, Out There Theatre, the ever inventive Monday Collective and the extraordinary Wolf+Water.

Most performances take place at the Queen's Theatre, the Baptist Hall in Boutport Street and St Anne's Arts & Community Centre in Church Walk. But also look out for performances in the museum and the library and other off-beat locations.

In these hard times ticket prices have been kept at last year's levels but the real recession-buster of a bargain is the Frequent Fringer Ticket, for just £15 you can see any six shows, that's just £2.50 a time.

For full details visit www.theatrefest.co.uk or pick up a TheatreFest brochure (available from April). Tickets go on sale from the beginning of June.

The Two Gentlemen of Verona by William Shakespeare

A Royal Shakespeare Company Live Screening

www.ndtt.org.uk/verona

Simon Godwin makes his RSC debut to direct Shakespeare's exuberant romantic comedy. He is Associate Director of the Royal Court and his production of Strange Interlude recently played to critical acclaim at the National Theatre. This is the first time in 45 years The Two Gentlemen of Verona has been performed in full production on the Royal Shakespeare Theatre stage.

Shakespeare's comment on friendship, love, constancy and fickleness; this romantic comedy takes us from the controlled world of Verona and Milan to the wildness of the forest where, it seems, anything can happen.

This cinema screening is a live screening of Shakespeare's history play as part of RSC Live - the best of British theatre broadcast worldwide.
