Talon – The Best of Eagles

Talon was formed back in September 1997. Fifteen years on and the group is recognised throughout the industry as the world's definitive Eagles tribute show. The 15th Anniversary Tour features all the classic Eagles hits from their timeless back catalogue plus Don Henley's solo hits Boys Of Summer and Dirty

Laundry and One Day At A Time and Funk #49 by Joe Walsh. Although the show now features seven world-class musicians, it is the immensely powerful vocal harmony and exact musical production on which Talon have built their reputation.

The House Jack Built

Written and performed by multi story theatre company

Jack was an architect. Jack's son lives in the house Jack built. The house is cracking, the foundations are crumbling. Jack's son is a worried man. Worried that he'll have nothing to pass on to his children. Like the third little pig, Jack built his house with bricks but it no longer seems secure from the wolves outside the door. And worse still, there are noises and voices – is there something or someone hiding inside the house?

Following on from the success of Josh's Monsters and Backward Glance, multi story premiere their latest production at studio@QT.

Post-show talk, open to all, complimentary drinks for Members and Supporters.

Sinfonia Classica Martin Roscoe, piano

Part of the Russian Romance Season

Martin Roscoe is a versatile pianist, equally at home in concerto, recital and chamber performances. His enduring popularity and the respect in which he is universally held are built on a deeply thoughtful musicianship allied to an easy rapport with audiences and fellow musicians alike.

Roscoe has performed regularly across the world on engagements with the BBC Philharmonic Orchestra, Hallé, City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra and the Munich Symphony Orchestra. He joins the Sinfonia for an outstanding Beethoven concerto in a programme including the Tchaikovsky Elegy and Mozart's memorable symphony No. 40.

DRAMA

Cardenio Performed by The Aporia Theatre Collective

In 1611, a play was submitted to the censor with no definitive author. Several characters were unnamed, there was no title and the plots within were adapted from episodes of Cervantes' Don Quixote. In the 1990s, the palaeographer Charles Hamilton attested that this play was the lost Shakespeare, Cardenio.

Debate has abounded since, and to coincide with the publication of Jonathan Busby and Luis del Aguila's edit, the Aporia Theatre Collective are proudly presenting their celebrated production in studio@QT.

This is an indelible and disturbing play that deals with obsession, amorality, suspicion and, ultimately, revenge.

The Aporia Theatre Collective's work on the text has also facilitated experimentation with lesser-represented, global forms of theatre, specifically Japanese Kabuki and Noh, and as such is a visually and aurally unique spectacle.

This performance includes brief nudity.

Please feel free to join the cast for a Q & A session in the Foyer Bar following the performance.

Sensational 60s' Experience

The Tremeloes, Herman's Hermits, The Union Gapuk, The Ivy League

Original classics are performed by four of the most popular bands of the 60s: The Tremeloes, Herman's Hermits, The Union Gapuk and The Ivy League.

The Tremeloes are one of the most documented and successful rock bands in music history. Their hit records include: Silence is Golden and Twist and Shout.

Herman's Hermits dominated the mid-60s' music scene. The band chalked up over twenty top twenty singles including: I'm Into Something Good and Something Is Happening.

A taster of what's to come from the Union Gapuk includes: Young Girl and Lady Willpower, whilst chart-toppers The Ivy League's string of hits include: Tossing & Turning and Funny How Love Can Be.

It's an endorsement to these four bands that people keep coming back to see them time and time again; first-rate music and nostalgia don't come any better than this.

The Lock In

The UK's No.1 Folk & Hip-Hop Dance Extravaganza

Some of the UK's oldest forms of dance are brought bang up to date when they collide with some of the youngest in this exciting new dance show.

The Lock In promises to do for English folk dance what Riverdance did for Irish dance and Diversity did for street dance, bringing some lesser known forms of dance into the mainstream. Fast-paced and innovative, the show brings together some of the UK's top clog, sword and Morris dancers with their counterparts from the worlds of B-boying, popping & krump.

The show, the brainchild of award-winning folk band The Demon

Barbers, sees a group of street dancers arrive at an apparently deserted pub. Local rumour has it that The Fighting Cocks is the place to be 'after hours' but as the regulars arrive a clash of cultures turns into a dance floor stand-off.

The skill, speed and athleticism of the dancers on both sides soon wins the others over as the old and new are brought together in an exciting and dynamic dance-off.

Sword dances are performed with snooker-cues, pub bouncers dance the Morris and B-boys flirt with clog girls. Meanwhile house band The Demon Barbers takes English folk music on a new journey with friends Hip Hop, House, Funk and Ska and even says hello to Burlesque and Drum & Bass along the way!

Swansea City Opera performs Donizetti's comic opera

Swansea City Opera make a welcome return with a production of Donizetti's popular and uproarious comic opera, Don Pasquale.

Beautifully staged in English with elegant 1840s' costumes, and performed by some of the finest singers and orchestral players in the country, Don Pasquale contains some of Donizetti's loveliest music and makes for an enchanting and hilarious evening's entertainment - a feast for the eyes and ears.

The story... Don Pasquale is one of Donizetti's funniest operas and has a typically complicated plot... but briefly... a silly old man Don Pasquale, wants to get married, in order to punish his rebellious nephew, Ernesto (who is in love with Norina), by providing himself with an heir and cutting the young man off without a penny.

Pasquale is duped by Dr Malatesta into marrying a country girl Sofronia, who is actually Ernesto's lover Norina. Once married, she turns into a monster and spends Pasquale's money like water and he understandably wishes he had never married her!

It all becomes more and more complicated but needless to say...the ending is a happy one.

Their workshops offer young people the opportunity to work with professional artists, gaining basic acting skills and techniques as well as creating original dramatic work. Participants will learn, build their skills, confidence and imagination as well as have fun and make new friends.

We are looking for 20 young drama enthusiasts (10 male and 10 female), aged 13 - 18 and two musicians (working with a composer creating an original score/soundscape for the production). If performing isn't your thing, we will also be looking for five young people to form our production team; responsible for props, scenery, costume, lighting design, script recording, sound and marketing.

We aren't looking for people with theatrical experience, we are looking for young people with mature and creative minds... this will be an experience they will always treasure and never forget.

MUSICAL

Miss Saigon® School Edition - Performed by The Theatre, Petroc

The Theatre Petroc brings this smash hit updated version of Madam Butterfly, from the writers of Les Miserables, to North Devon for the very first time, performed entirely by students.

In the turmoil of the Vietnam War, an American soldier and a Vietnamese girl fall in love, only to be separated during the fall of Saigon. Their struggles to find each other over the ensuing years ends in tragedy for her and a fighting chance for the child he never knew he had.

Featuring the show stopping numbers; The Heat is On, Sun and Moon, The American Dream and The Last Night of the World this is a show not to be missed.

Music by Claude-Michel Schönberg. Lyrics by Richard Maltby Jr and Alain Boublil. Original Stage Production by Cameron Mackintosh. School Edition specially adapted and licensed by Josef Weinberger Ltd on behalf of Music Theatre International and Cameron Mackintosh

DRAMA

Now in its eighth thrilling year, the Agatha Christie Theatre Company presents a production of the queen of crime's classic Go Back For Murder.

Carla Le Marchant learns a disturbing family secret; her mother, Caroline Crale, died in prison after being convicted for poisoning her father. Caroline leaves an intriguing legacy in the form of a letter professing her innocence and, believing this to be true, Carla is determined to clear her mother's name.

Suspects, secrets, and red herrings abound in this thrilling new production of Go Back for Murder which follows the hugely successful; The Hollow, The Unexpected Guest, And Then There Were None, Spider's Web, Witness For The Prosecution, Verdict and Murder on the Nile. A classic whodunit packed with intrigue, murder and suspense from the pen of the great Dame Agatha Christie.
